

Art.i.fact

A consignment clothier for people of style

Santa Feans have a distinctive style: a little bit fancy, a little bit funky, and always eclectic. If we can wear it with boots, we like it even better.

At Art.i.fact, we salivate over designer labels, especially offbeat European and Japanese designers. But we like Gap and H&M, too. We believe in a high-low ethos that mixes and matches across the fashion spectrum.

Here's our "love" list:
